

Polygons

- a 2D closed shape with straight line segments; each side meets at a vertex

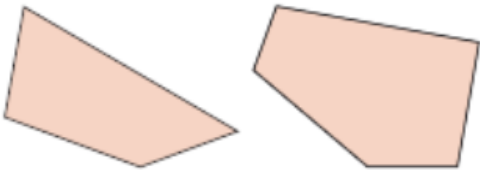

Regular Polygons have all sides the same length and angles are all the same
- has lines of symmetry

Irregular Polygons have different sides lengths and angles

Convex Polygon has all angles less than 180

Concave Polygon has at least one angle greater than 180

